Atlanta, GA 30303

Dear Ms. Johnson:

I am pleased to inform you that the six major colleges and universities within the city -- Georgia State University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Clark Atlanta University, Morehouse College, Morris Brown College, and Spelman College -- have selected John Marshall to continue to serve as their representative on the City of Atlanta's Board of Ethics. Mr. Marshall was initially appointed for a two-year term ending on August 18, 2004, and has now been appointed for a full three-year term of office. He is currently serving as vice chair of the Board.

Mr. Marshall meets all the requirements for the office. Enclosed is the letter from Georgia State University President Carl Patton announcing Mr. Marshall's selection and a copy of Mr. Marshall's vita. In addition, the Department of Human Resources has reported that the candidate has undergone the criminal history, employment, and education background check as required under section 2-804 of the Code of Ethics.

It is my understanding that Mr. Marshall's appointment will be complete as soon as you sound his name at the next regularly scheduled council meeting.

If you need any further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Johnson

Re: Selection of Nominee to the City Board of Ethics

Dear Mr. Johnson:

After communicating with the other universities—Georgia Institute of Technology, Clark Atlanta University, Morehouse College, Morris Brown College, and Spelman College, the consensus is to have John Marshall continue as our representative to the City Board of Ethics. I understand that you already have a copy of his vita on file.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

John D. Marshall, Jr.

Assistant Vice President for Legal Affairs

Georgia State University

Mr. John D. Marshall, Jr. is the Assistant Vice President for Legal Affairs at Georgia State University. He earned a BA in Political Science at Clemson University and received his Juris Doctorate from Emory University School of Law. As the Assistant Vice President for Legal Affairs at Georgia State University, Mr. Marshall provides legal advice to all University administrators. He also serves as advisor to the President and Provost on legal and administrative matters. In addition to these duties he is currently serving as the Acting President of the Georgia State University Foundation.

He has served on the University's Administrative Council, University Senate, Faculty Affairs Committee, Senate Athletic Committee, Senate Statutes and By Laws Committee, Affirmative Action Committee, Athletic Association Board of Trustees, Board of Directors of the University Research Foundation, and the Effectiveness Committee for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Self-study. He has served as Adjunct Assistant Professor of Political Science, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Educational Administration, and Adjunct Assistant Professor of Law. He now teaches Sports Law in the Graduate Sports Administration Program in the College of Education. In previous years he has taught graduate seminars in College and University Law for Masters and Doctoral students in the College of Education as well as the introductory Political Science course for undergraduate students in the College of Arts and Sciences. Mr. Marshall has also guest lectured at the University in classes in Law, Physical Therapy, Nursing, Educational Policy Studies, Sports Administration, Recreation, and Exercise Science. He regularly addresses groups of deans, department chairmen, faculty, staff employees, and student groups on legal issues.

Mr. Marshall has presented more than sixty speeches and lectures at conferences across the United States and Canada. He has published five articles or chapters related to various legal issues.

Mr. Marshall has strong ties to both the professional and civic community. He has been a member of the Board of the National Association of College and University Attorneys, and has served as President and a member of the board of both the Fulton County Division of the America Heart Association, and the Morningside/Lenox Park Association. He currently serves as a member of the City of Atlanta Board of Ethics. He coached youth soccer for a number of years in the Atlanta Youth Soccer Association, and has an "E" coaching license.
